

Fondation "Partager le Savoir"
Sharing Knowledge Foundation

From Red Sea to Dead Sea – Water and Energy
*Towards a sustainable management of water resources in Israel,
Jordan, Palestine*
The Red Sea – Dead Sea Water Conveyance Project
Geneva, 6 – 7 June, 2007

JUNE 6, 2007

14:30 Robert Klapisch, President
Sharing Knowledge Foundation, Switzerland

Miriam Balaban, Secretary General
European Desalination Society, Italy

The position of the Japanese Government
Makio Miyagawa, Ambassador, Deputy Permanent Representative
Japan Mission, Japan

16:15 Coffee break

16:45 Water Needs in the Middle East Region
(Israel, Jordan and Palestinian Authority)

Shimon Tal, Former Water Commissioner, Israel

Fadel Kawash, Water Commissioner, Palestinian Authority

Mousa Mohsen, Hashemite University, Jordan

18:00 End of session

20:00 Dinner

JUNE 7, 2007

8:30 The Red-Dead Sea Project

The Dead Sea and the Canals
Michael Beyth

The Red Sea – Dead Sea Project
Fayez Bataineh

The Israel Official Viewpoint of the Red-Dead Sea Project
Jacob Keidar

9:45 Coffee break

10:15 Industry

Water – Gerard Velter, Veolia

Energy – Philippe Delleur, Alstom

The importance of public–private partnership to optimise the benefit of the Red–Dead Canal

Abdel Rahman Tamimi, Palestinian Authority

11:30 Press Conference

13:00 Lunch

14:00 Legal Considerations

Jitzchak Alster

Technology and the environment

Economic and technical assessment of desalination technologies

Fawzi Banat

Environmental impacts of the Red–Dead Sea mega desalination project

Hani Abu Qdais

15:45 Coffee Break

16:15 Panel discussion

Richard Morris

18:15 Aperitif

19:00 Bus departure

20:00 Conference for the public at Dufour University

21:45 Bus departure

22:00 Dinner at St-Germain

24:00 Back to hotel